GEOGRAPHY · AGRICULTURE · FARM FILES CASE 1 OF 8

Why does the world need farmers?

Name _____

Date _____

Shreshta is spending a holiday at Nani's village. Read what happens and fill in the missing words. Every right answer earns a ⭐. Colour in your stars on page 2!

PART 1 · A DAY IN THE VILLAGE

Nani's story 🌾

Pick a word from the box for each blank. Each word is used once. The clue is always in the same paragraph. Cross off a word once you use it.

Word box: fodder · foreign exchange · quarter · livelihood · railways · employment · income · raw material · two-thirds · food security · export

🌅 Morning

Shreshta woke up at Nani's house and found everyone had already gone to the fields. "Why is everybody a farmer here?" she asked. Nani smiled. "Farming is how we earn our living. It is our [1] _____. In countries like ours, about 70 out of every 100 people depend on farming. Across the whole world, nearly [2] _____ of all workers are busy on farms."

🐄 In the cowshed

Nani's cow Gauri was chewing dry stalks and green grass. "Crops feed us, and what is left feeds our animals. Food for animals has a special name. We call it [3] _____."

👕 In Raju Mama's cotton field

Shreshta looked at her T-shirt. "That started life as fluffy cotton in a field like mine," laughed Raju Mama. "Factories can't work without farms. Cotton for cloth, sugarcane for sugar, jute for sacks. Farms give factories their [4] _____."

🚚 At the gate

A truck came to collect sacks of rice, and a goods train whistled far away. "Our crops travel to factories by trucks on roads and by trains on the [5] _____," said Mama.

🌍 Over evening chai

"Some of our tea and spices go all the way to other countries!" said Nani. Selling goods to another country is called an [6] _____. The money India earns from other countries is called [7] _____. Jute, spices, cotton, tea and coffee bring in about 18 out of every 100 rupees India earns from selling abroad!

👷 Down by the canal

Workers were digging a new canal, and women were picking tea leaves on the hill. None of them owned the fields, but farming still gave them work. Farming creates lots of [8] _____.

🍚 Dinner

"When a country grows enough food for everyone, nobody has to worry about the next meal," said Nani. "That safe feeling is called [9] _____. A strong farming country also earns more, so farming adds a lot to the country's total [10] _____."

✈️ Flying home

From the airplane, Shreshta saw green and brown squares everywhere. About one [11] _____ of all the land on Earth is farmed. That's 1 out of every 4 pieces!

PART 2 · TRACE IT BACK

From the field to your hands 🔍

Everything on the left began on a farm. Draw a line from each thing to the crop it came from.

👕 Your T-shirt ○	○ 🌱 Tea
🍬 Sugar in your kheer ○	○ 🌱 Groundnut
🛍️ A gunny bag ○	○ 🌱 Cotton
🫓 Your chapati ○	○ 🌱 Rubber
🍵 Nani's chai ○	○ 🌱 Jute
✏️ Your eraser ○	○ 🌱 Wheat
🥜 Cooking oil ○	○ 🌱 Sugarcane

Farm secret: Rubber is a milky juice that drips from a cut in the bark of the rubber tree. Jute is called the golden fibre because its threads shine like gold.

PART 3 · SECRET CODE

Crack the "-culture" code 🔐

"Culture" here means growing or raising. The front part is a Latin code word. Use the decoder to solve each riddle.

CODE WORD	MEANS	SO THE FARMING IS…
Agri	field	growing crops and raising animals on the land
Horti	garden	growing vegetables, flowers and fruits to sell
Seri	silk	raising silkworms to get silk
Viti	vine	growing grapes
Pisci	fish	breeding and raising fish

FARM DETECTIVE LEVEL 1

Colour one star for every right answer. Fill all 29 to earn your badge!

○ ○

Next time: why rice loves rain but wheat likes it cool, and what Kharif and Rabi mean.

PART 3 CONTINUED

The riddles 🧩

1. I wriggle and munch mulberry leaves. Then I wrap myself in a shiny thread that becomes a beautiful saree. Raising me is called…

Answer: _____

2. My farmer fills a big pond, drops in tiny babies and feeds them till they grow big and silver. I swim! Raising me is called…

Answer: _____

3. I climb up wires in long neat rows, and I hang in green and purple bunches. Growing me is called…

Answer: _____

4. Roses, tomatoes, mangoes and cabbages are grown in a greenhouse to sell in the market. This is called…

Answer: _____

5. Nani grows rice and also keeps Gauri the cow. Growing crops on the land plus rearing animals is called…

Answer: _____

PART 4 · JUMBLED SACKS

Nani mixed up the labels 🧺

The letters on these rice sacks got jumbled. Write the real word, one letter in each box. You used all of them today!

D O F R E D

Food for cows and goats

☐☐☐☐☐☐

P R O X E T

Selling to another country

☐☐☐☐☐☐

W A L S I R A Y

Trains carry crops on these

☐☐☐☐☐☐☐☐

T R U Q A E R

1 out of 4 parts of Earth's land is farmed

☐☐☐☐☐☐☐

V I L O H E I D O L

How people earn their living

☐☐☐☐☐☐☐☐☐☐

M E N T Y L O P E M

Work and jobs for people

☐☐☐☐☐☐☐☐☐☐

FOR THE GROWN-UP

Answer key

Check together after she finishes. If an answer is wrong, point her back to the paragraph with the clue rather than giving the word.

Part 1 · Nani's story

1. livelihood
2. two-thirds
3. fodder
4. raw material
5. railways
6. export
7. foreign exchange
8. employment
9. food security
10. income
11. quarter

Part 2 · Field to hands

1. T-shirt → Cotton
2. Sugar → Sugarcane
3. Gunny bag → Jute
4. Chapati → Wheat
5. Chai → Tea
6. Eraser → Rubber
7. Cooking oil → Groundnut

Part 3 · Riddles

1. Sericulture (seri = silk)
2. Pisciculture (pisci = fish)
3. Viticulture (viti = vine)
4. Horticulture (horti = garden)
5. Agriculture (agri = field)

Part 4 · Jumbled sacks

1. FODDER
2. EXPORT
3. RAILWAYS
4. QUARTER
5. LIVELIHOOD
6. EMPLOYMENT

Total: 11 + 7 + 5 + 6 = 29 stars.